

FUN BASEL Vol III Speakers @Fluxdock - 22 September 2016

Asitta Tabatabai

M.A. lic.iur.

Accredited Coach, Mediator, Supervisor and Trainer of Mediators and mediative skills at the work place, Asitta is convinced about the idea of Constructivism, that we all create our own reality. Therefore she failed to fulfill the reality of others and instead creating her own, by constantly “failing” projects to create even better ones. It is not the lack of math-skills that makes her believe that the shortest connection between two points is a curve and not a straight line.

So her life path led her from being a lawyer to studying alternative medicine and body work to being a Mediator, Coach, Supervisor and Trainer who embraces humans as a kaleidoscope of potentials.

Today the combination of Emotions, Stress and Conflict stand in the Centre of her colorful work. She works with people who lost balance in life or at work. People who are looking for that shortest way to an authentic life, which allows them to show their true colors and express themselves in a constructive way.

Daniel Jordi

Creator of The ChangeMakers Hub & LinkedREvolution

Visionary Connector for High Impact Leaders

Member of the Steering Committee at the Trestle Group Foundation 20:20 Initiative

At the core, Daniel is on a mission to bring humanity back into the way we do business. On that journey, he worked with more than 250 leaders and entrepreneurs to help them create meaningful and authentic connections with high level leaders. He believes that “Your tribe always finds you” and that real, genuine and caring relationships are at the core of living a successful and fulfilling life in business.

Daniel has experienced more FuckUps than he can remember and falling flat on his face is part of a normal week for him. The lessons he learned from these experiences are what brought him to where he is today.
